

1. Virtual Instrument Software Architecture interface (VISA) is the most common interface for communication with instruments from the PC.
2. It depends on how many USB ports we have in our PC, because we can connect with one instrument with each USB port via the VISA protocol. So, if there are X usb ports, we can connect X instruments via the VISA protocol.
3. OUTPUT ON
4. OUTPUT OFF